

PROBLEM STATEMENT

- Joe is a fresher, who needs to find a full time employment opportunity and wants to know the available openings in the market for his profile, so that he can kick start his career.
- Pallavi is a Java developer, who wants to switch career paths and wants to know the required skills to transition into the new field so that she can prosper.
- Aditya is a talent acquisition specialist, who is looking for a higher pay, so that he can be at par with his competitors.
- Jack is a desperate job-seeker, who just got laid off due to economic conditions and needs a stable source of income so that he can be financially stable.
- Meena is not satisfied with her current organization, and she needs a way to move to a different firm so that the work culture is more fulfilling.

Who can use this application?	Job Seekers.
When to use?	While seeking job opportunities.
What is the issue?	Job seekers can't find jobs relevant to their skill sets.
Why is it important that we fix this issue?	In order to find the right people for the job at the right time.
What are the benefits?	The entire job search process will take less time and use fewer resources.